

LET'S START A RIOT

Music: Schau

Lyrics: Schau

Such a punklife riptide
Society as an alibi
Fortified by the evil eyes
Of those passing by

Lullabies for the pigsty
Live life like a swan cries
Only once in its life
Just before it dies

Only trying to kill time, but that fucker just won't die

Who's got the truth if we all lie
Every word's like a battle cry
Kill the mother and the baby dies
Then watch the worlds collide

Let's start a riot
Let's start a riot
But maybe not today
Okay
Let's start a riot
Let's start a riot
But maybe not today
Okay

Fuck your punkstyle exile
Looking in from the outside
Making plans from the trash pile
As the world flies by

Come on you roadside reptiles
Try to have some fucking pride
If the big guy's satisfied
Then you haven't tried

(knusing av rute)
Let's start a riot
Let's start a riot
But maybe not today
Okay
Let's start a riot

Let's start a riot
But maybe not today
Okay
