

DON'T LET ME DOWN

2 is the loneliest number
The loneliest number of all
Either one will be crushed
If the other falls

Every true love story
Is a story of bad timing
Should I find the power to love you
Instead of just resigning

I never learn

Don't let me down
No, no, no, no
Don't let me down
No, no, no, no, no
Don't let me down
Never, ever, never
Don't let me down
No, no, no, no

You'll never know your fears
Until your heart has spoken
You won't ever know your love
Until you've seen her broken
Should I remove my soul
Before I let you go
We're the loneliest people I know

Don't let me down
No, no, no, no
Don't let me down
No, no, no, no, no
Don't let me down
Never, ever, never
Don't let me down
No, no, no, no

I never learn
I never learn
I never learn
I never learn
