

STAY AWAY FROM HER

She's got a new boyfriend now
And it isn't you

Stay away from her

Try to focus on somebody else
Whatever you do

Stay away from her

You were never more than a friend
She's found someone new

Stay away from her

It's over. There's nothing left.

She's through with you

Stay away

I'm sorry for
Crushing your
Destroying all your dreams tonight
But someone had to

That movie you got for her birthday
They're watching it now

Stay away from her

Truth is, you never did have her
You didn't know how

Stay away from her

You love was stronger than hers
I know it's not fair

Stay away from her

But whatever you're feeling right now

She really don't care

Stay away from her

I'm sorry for
Crushing your
Destroying all your dreams tonight
But someone had to

As a friend I had to let you know
Time for you to let her go
It's never meant to be
She's happy can't you see

I'm sorry for
Crushing your
Destroying all your dreams tonight
But someone had to
