

WHY IS THE FLESH SO STRONG

Music: Schau

Lyrics: Schau

No one's ever alone
Who the fuck threw me that bone
Cause the only heartbeats I can hear are my own
The sound of my own voice
Is my only real choice
Of cancelling out that thumping internal noise

Why is the flesh so strong
Wants always to move on
And why is there music everywhere
And not a hand to hold

Since you been gone
The radio is always on
Just to kill the loneliness of an empty home
Movement is key
So the solution for me
Is to keep on inventing destinations where I can flee

Why is the flesh so strong
Wants always to move on
And why is there music everywhere
And not a hand to hold
