

THERE WON'T BE AN ENCORE

Music: Schau

Lyrics: Schau

Don't ask me for an encore
I just can't do those no more
Not even a goodbye
It would kill me if I even tried

So don't ask me for an encore
I just can't do those no more
Not even a goodbye

Cause/your "relationship" is just another word for something gone bad

This is not an encore
Never mind I've done them before
That was years ago
Now the curtain's down, it's time to go

This is not an encore
Never mind I've done them before
That was years ago

Cause "relationship" is just another word for something gone bad
Gone bad

There won't be an encore
This time I'll make sure
No need to come back
The show is over. Fade to black

There won't be an encore
This time I'll make sure
No need to come back

"Relationship" is such an ugly word for something gone bad
Gone bad
How come they always go bad
