

PLEASE SAY SOMETHING

Music: Martinsen

Lyrics: Schau

These bones are made for birds
This body, reduced to words
Be the door that I keep open
At the side of the house I've broken

When the dark cloud shadowing
Everything I see
Once more chooses
To empty its belly upon me

Be as real and distant as the sky
But join me every once in a while
So we can sing all night like two drunk friends
Songs of love and how it should end

Maybe we won't make ourselves
Get to the chorus
Cause you and I are still alive
If no one is missing us

Hope these songs
Go on
Even if we're gone

Please say something
Please say something
Please say something

Life is such a fragile thing
Hold on too tight and it will crush
I would never call you suicide
More like an early ride to avoid the rush

Please say something
Please say something
Please say something
