

SHUT UP

I've tried to be honest about who I am
You don't listen, you don't listen
I like eating, sleeping and playing in a band
You don't listen, you don't listen
And I don't like people that talk non-stop
You don't listen, you don't listen
So for the love of god, woman, won't you please shut up
You don't listen, you don't listen

I've never said I love to hear you talk about your friends
You don't listen, you don't listen
But you just keep on yappin', the boredom never ends
You don't listen, you don't listen
I guess I kind of love you, but this has got to stop
You don't listen, you don't listen
So for the love of god, woman, won't you please shut up
You don't listen, you don't listen

I don't know where you find the power
When you never listen at all
But when you start you go for hours
And you never listen at all
All this girlstuff, I don't give a fuck
You never listen at all
If you wanna be with me.....SHUT UP.

SHUT UP!
SHUT UP!
