

AT THE BIRTH OF A SONG

Music: Nilsen/Schau

Lyrics: Schau

Can feel it drown me
Exactly what I want
It's all about surrender
Never the hunt

I'll slide over
The waterfall in time
If I just let the water
Go and drink my mind

This is where I belong
At the birth of a song
Where everything is possible
My mind is all gone
I just feel at home
Somehow, I'm untouchable

Let me stay right here

My sense of self
Buried alive in cotton
Nothing is forgiven.
But all's forgotten

I'm neither alive
Or comatose or dead
But for once I wanna stay
Inside my own head

This is where I belong
At the birth of a song
Where everything is possible
My mind is all gone
I just feel at home
Somehow, I'm untouchable

Let me stay right here
I just wanna spend my life right here
Let me stay
Let me stay
