

WHY I LIE

It's my castle
It's my kingdom
It's the one place where I have a choice
It's my freedom

When I'm not what I am
We are good

You wanna change me
Don't have a chance
There's not enough music left in the world
To make me dance

When I'm not what I am
We are good
I wouldn't be me
If I could

The way that things were
They never will be
And it feels like every memory is a crucifix
From my past, but it can not kill me

You don't know me
I don't myself
I don't need your fuckin love
I need help

When I'm not what I am
We are good
I wouldn't be me
If I could

The way that things were
They never will be
And it feels like every memory is a crucifix
From my past, but it can not kill me
